EMPLOYMENT SCAMS

Don't pay for job information that you can get for free from federal, state and local job hotlines, libraries, schools and the Internet. Never pay for information on government jobs including post office positions – this information is always free. Federal job vacancies are listed at www.usajobs.opm.gov. Applications are always free. Be wary of employment services or agencies that guarantee results or promise unrealistically high salaries. Don't sign up with any service, agency or counselor without written confirmation of their services and fees. Shop around to be sure that any fee you pay is reasonable. And, look for job listings where the employer pays the fee.

Check with the Better Business Bureau at (302)230-0108 or at the BBB website at www.delaware.bbb.org/homepage.html to see if any complaints have been made against an agency or service before you pay for services.
